

Top Trans Tips

Working With Trans and Gender Questioning Young People

Explore Attitudes & Values
Increase Trans Awareness
Provide Practical Tips
Workshop with DISC Gender
Identity Support Service

Tuesday 14th Nov
2017
1-4.30pm
New Croft House
Market St East
Newcastle
NE1 6ND

Awareness & understanding of issues often faced by trans people
Building confidence around appropriate use of language
Practical tips for working with trans & gender questioning young people
Positive steps to make services trans inclusive

This is an advanced course offered through the Newcastle Sexual Health Training. Participants need to have completed the essential 'Introduction to Sexual Health' course before attending this course.

www.newcastle.gov.uk/sexualhealthtraining

No cost to participants working in Newcastle. £50 for those working outside Newcastle.

Please complete the attached application form, stating which date you are applying for and send to:

wfdadmin@newcastle.gov.uk

Once you have applied, please save the date in your calendar. There is a selection procedure for our courses, to ensure a wide mix of applicants and best use of the training opportunity. Confirmation emails will go out no later than two weeks before the course is due to start, so please ensure you provide an accurate email address on your application form. Please do not arrive at the training if you have not received a confirmation of your place on the course. If you have applied and not heard anything, please contact us.

