Are you aged 16-19 years old?

Would you like to make and star in your own film?

Would you like to learn new skills and achieve an Arts Award?

Beacon Hill Arts BFI Film Academy is searching for the next generation of talented young people with learning disabilities, autism or additional needs who are passionate about discovering and developing their filmmaking talents.

From November 2013 to February 2014 we will be running our second BFI Film Academy. There are 12 places available.

You don't need any experience and we welcome young people of all abilities – It's enthusiasm that counts!

Take a look at our young filmmakers' multi-award winning work at www.beaconhillarts.org.uk/tv

To find out more and apply for a place, come along to one of our Taster and Selection Days. This day is FREE to attend and will be a fun filmmaking workshop!

Venue: Beacon Hill School, Wallsend, NE28 9JW

- Option 1: Thurs 31st Oct from 10am-2.30pm

- Option 2: Fri 1st Nov from 10am-2.30pm

To find out more and book your place visit:
